H. Res. 1106

*Articles of Impeachment against George Walker Bush,
President of the United States of America, and other officials, for high crimes and misdemeanors.*

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 8, 2006

Ms. McKINNEY introduced the following Resolution:

RESOLUTION

Resolved, that George Walker Bush, President of the United States, is impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and that the following Articles of Impeachment be exhibited to the United States Senate:

Articles of Impeachment exhibited by the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the name of itself and of all the people of the United States of America, against George Walker Bush, President of the United States of America, and other officials, in maintenance and support of its impeachment against him for high crimes and misdemeanors.

1           Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of 2           the United States of America in Congress assembled that:

3           ARTICLE I. FAILURE TO PRESERVE, PROTECT 4           AND DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION

5           In violation of the oath of office, which reads: “I do 6           solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the 7           Office of President of the United States, and will to the best 8           of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution 9           of the United States,” George Walker Bush, in his conduct 10          while President of the United States has demonstrated a 11          pattern of abuse of office and of executive privilege, and 12          disregard for the Constitution itself.

13          This conduct includes the following:

14          Manipulating Intelligence and Lying to Justify War.

15          In violation of the separation of powers under the 16          Constitution and his subsequent obligation to share 17          intelligence with the Congress, George Walker Bush, while 18          serving as President of the United States of America, in 19          preparing the invasion of Iraq, did withhold intelligence 20          from the Congress, by refusing to provide Congress with 21          the full intelligence picture that he was being given, by 22          redacting information by, for example, removing portions 23          of reports such as the August 6, 2001 Presidential Daily

1 Brief, and actively manipulating the intelligence on Iraq's 2 alleged weapons programs by pressuring the Central 3 Intelligence Agency and other intelligence agencies to 4 provide intelligence such that "the intelligence and facts 5 were being fixed around the policy" as revealed in the 6 "Downing Street Memo." To this end, President George 7 Walker Bush and Secretary of Defense Rumsfeld created
8 the Office of Special Plans inside the Pentagon to override 9 existing intelligence reports by providing unreliable 10 evidence that supported the claim that Iraq's alleged 11 weapons of mass destruction posed an imminent threat to 12 the United States of America. By justifying the invasion of 13 Iraq with false and misleading statements linking Iraq to 14 the attacks of September 11, 2001, and falsely asserting 15 that Iraq had a nuclear weapons program for which it was 16 importing aluminum tubes and uranium, these assertions 17 being either false, or based on "fixed" intelligence, with the 18 intent to misinform the people and their representatives in 19 Congress in order to gain their support for invading Iraq, 20 denying both the people and their representatives in 21 Congress the right to make an informed choice, George 22 Walker Bush, President of the United States, did commit 23 and was guilty of high crimes against the United States of

1 America.

2 ARTICLE II. ABUSE OF OFFICE AND OF 3 EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE.

4 In violation of his oath to “faithfully execute the office of 5 President of the United States,” George Walker Bush, in his 6 conduct while President of the United States, has 7 consistently demonstrated disregard for that oath by 8 obstructing and hindering the work of Congressional 9 investigative bodies and by seeking to expand the scope of 10 the powers of his office.

11 This conduct includes the following:

12 Failure to Uphold Accountability.

13 In abrogation of his responsibility under the oath of office 14 to take care that the Laws be faithfully executed, by which 15 he agreed to act in good faith and accept responsibility for 16 the overall conduct of the Executive Branch, a duty vested
17 in his office alone under the Constitution, George Walker 18 Bush, failed to take responsibility for, investigate or 19 discipline those responsible for an ongoing pattern of 20 negligence, incompetence and malfeasance to the detriment 21 of the American people.

22 Those whom George Walker Bush, as President of the 23 United States of America, has failed to hold to account

1 include but are not limited to the following top-level
2 officials in his administration:

4 (a) Richard Cheney. In violation of his oath of office to 5 support and defend the Constitution, Richard Cheney, Vice 6 President of the United States of America, played a key 7 role in manipulating intelligence in the interest of 8 promoting the illegal invasion of Iraq by pressuring 9 analysts at the Central Intelligence Agency to “fix” their 10 intelligence estimates of the danger posed by Iraq in 11 relation to weapons of mass destruction, whereby Richard 12 Cheney, Vice President of the United States, did commit
13 and was guilty of high crimes against the United States of 14 America.

15

16 (b) Condoleezza Rice, In violation of her Constitutional 17 duty to share and provide accurate and truthful intelligence
18 information with the Congress, as former National Security 19 Advisor to the President, did play a leading role in 20 deceiving Congress and the American public by repeating 21 and propagating false statements concerning Iraq’s alleged 22 weapons of mass destruction program, including false 23 information that the purchase of aluminum tubes

1 demonstrated that Iraq was pursuing a nuclear weapons 2 program, false information that Iraq was seeking to 3 purchase uranium and false information that Iraq sought 4 help in developing a chemical and biological weapons 5 program; whereby Conoleezza Rice, Secretary of State of 6 the United States of America, did commit and was guilty of 7 high misdemeanors against the United States of America.

9 By neglecting to superintend the conduct of these officials 10 and to hold members of the Executive Branch responsible 11 for their negligence or violations of law, George Walker 12 Bush, President of the United States, did commit and was 13 guilty of high misdemeanors against the United States of 14 America.

15 Wherefore, by their aforementioned conduct, George 16 Walker Bush, Richard Cheney and Condoleezza Rice
17 warrant impeachment, trial and removal from office.

18

19 ARTICLE III. FAILURE TO ENSURE THE LAWS
20 ARE FAITHFULLY EXECUTED

21 In violation of his duty under Article II, Section 3 of the 22 Constitution of the United States of America to “take Care 23 that the Laws be faithfully executed,” George Walker Bush,

1 during his tenure as President of the United States, has 2 violated the letter and spirit of laws and rules of criminal 3 procedure used by civilian and military courts, and has 4 violated or ignored regulatory codes and practices that 5 carry out the law.

6 This conduct includes the following:

7 Illegal Domestic Spying.

8 In violation of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act
9 (FISA) [50 USC Chapter 36], George Walker Bush did 10 clandestinely direct the National Security Agency and 11 various other intelligence agencies, in secret and outside 12 the lawful scope of their mandates, for purposes unrelated 13 to any lawful function of his offices, to conduct electronic 14 surveillance of citizens of the United States on U.S. soil 15 without seeking to obtain, before or after, a judicial warrant, 16 thereby subverting the powers of the Congress and the 17 Judiciary by circumventing the Foreign Intelligence
18 Surveillance Act (FISA) courts established by Congress, 19 whose express purpose is to check such abuses of executive 20 power, provoking the presiding judge of the Foreign 21 Intelligence Surveillance Court to file a complaint and 22 another judge to resign in protest, the said program having 23 been subsequently ruled illegal (ACLU vs. NSA); he has

1 also concealed the existence of this unlawful program of 2 spying on American citizens from the people and all but a 3 few of their representatives in Congress, even resorting to 4 outright public deceit as on 20 April, 2004, when he told an 5 audience in Buffalo, New York: “any time you hear the 6 United States government talking about wiretap, it 7 requires . . . a court order. Nothing has changed, by the way.
8 When we're talking about chasing down terrorists, we're 9 talking about getting a court order before we do so,” 10 whereby said George Walker Bush, President of the United 11 States, did commit and was guilty of high crimes against 12 the United States of America.

13

14 In all of this, George Walker Bush has repeatedly and 15 unapologetically misled the American people and has 16 sought to undermine the system of checks and balances 17 established by the Founding Founders. Wherefore George 18 Walker Bush, by such conduct, and in the interest of saving 19 our Constitution and our democracy from the threat of 20 arbitrary government, warrants impeachment and trial, and 21 removal from office.
